

Online Training Registration Instructions

Thank you for registering for the Mersen 2021 online training course(s). Although this year is looking a little different than years past, we are very excited to have the opportunity to educate you on all of our products!

To make things easier, please make sure that the following steps are followed prior to the training:

You will receive the following notification once you have successfully registered for an online course through Eventbrite

The image shows a screenshot of an Eventbrite notification and a preview of the event page. The notification on the left includes a green checkmark icon, the text "Thanks for your order! #1654960493", and a "View Tickets" button. The event page preview on the right shows the Mersen logo, the text "Mersen Created this event", and a blue "Follow" button. The event title is "Construction Market, Focus Products, and Programs".

Thanks for your order! #1654960493
